

OPPOSITE ASPECTS OF WAR.

HOW THEY ARE REPRESENTED BY TWO APPROACHING VESSELS.

CHEERS AND MERRY-MAKING FOR DEWEY'S MEN ON THE RALEIGH—THE MUZZLED DRUM-BEAT FOR THE HEROES WHOM THE ROMANIAN BRINGS TO REST BEHIND THE HOME SOIL.

Two vessels are now approaching this port which fully represent the opposite aspects of war. One stands for all the joy, congratulation, cheers and merry-making connected with glorious victory, the other for all the sorrow, tears, loss and sacrifice connected with war's cruelty. The cruiser Raleigh is approaching, gay with the Stars and Stripes, bringing her hearty ears, awed with the pride of Dewey's famous naval battle at Manila; the Romanian is creeping in, with flag at half-mast, bearing more than six hundred corpses of the Nation's brave soldiers who gave up their lives in Cuba and Puerto Rico.

Each will be received becomingly. For the sailors, a motley fleet of vessels will swarm over the Bay, blowing whistles, firing guns and flying bunting. Parades by water and by land will follow, where Jack and his ship will have a plethora of escorts, and thousands upon thousands of city folk will press forward, eager to see and to welcome. After that a reception and banquet for the officers and feasting and kissing for the men by many a happy heart. For those others, heartbreak of wives, sisters, mothers, sweethearts; bowed heads of men, muffled drums, funeral gloom and a grave. Victory must be paid for.

FUNERAL SHIP MAY GET IN TO-MORROW.

The funeral ship will be the first to arrive. She may get in to-morrow. The cruiser is due early next month. She reached the Azores on Thursday, and is expected to leave there to-morrow. The distance is two thousand miles, and if the weather is favorable she ought to cover it in ten days. Her hull is covered with barnacles and other marine growth, due to her long stay in tropical waters, or she could make better time.

The celebration attending the Raleigh's welcome will be an official one. The Municipal Council will be asked to make an appropriation for it. As soon as she is sighted warning will be given, and craft of all kind will carry sightseers down the Bay to greet her. Big guns will salute from the forts on shore, line of parade will be formed, and the Raleigh will probably be escorted up the North River as far as Grant's Tomb and back again.

It is expected that the band parade up Broadway, which will come next, will be on an imposing scale. All the sailors and marines who can be spared from the ship will be in line. Others from the Navy Yard will join. No Naval Reserve man is likely to miss such an occasion, if he possibly can get there. And the New-York crowds can be relied on to line both sides of the street and cheer and cheer and cheer as long as the sailor boys can stagger another block forward.

When the Romanian is seen by the Sandy Hook lookout the fort will salute her also, and the flags on all municipal buildings will be placed at half-mast. Doubtless many others will follow this example, for probably much other freight as hers has never been borne before into any part in the world by the bullet or disease. The fort will be open for the feelings of those who loved and lost these heroes are now brought North to find a resting place near the home lefts of their countrymen. Twenty-eight are the bodies of men of the 1st Regiment, New-York Volunteers, the rest being all over the land.

MORE THAN A THOUSAND MORE TO COME.

There are nearly 1,300 more to follow this shipload before the sorrowful tale is all told and the incident closed. One unhappy feature of it is that many of the bodies are wholly beyond identification, and many relatives must be disappointed in spite of the Government's best efforts. Twelve undertakers and fifty assistants, named by the governors of various States whose regiments were deployed in Cuba and Porto Rico, were sent South, with a minute description of the dead as they lay in their coffins on the Romanian bear no name.

"All are in charge of the superintendents of Albany Cemetery and will be buried there." One monument will be erected over them all, and as the Army rolls have been carefully kept it will be possible to determine the names and ranks of all the unknowns through impossible to do so.

The names, therefore, will be engraved upon the monument, beneath which the dead patriots will sleep.

A funeral train will be made up in Jersey City to take the identified bodies to their last resting places. The Government has given allowances for the burial expenses of each one. This does not include coffin or transportation charges. No limit has been set in this respect, and relatives of the dead soldiers, though they may be the most distant part of the country, will have the cost of each loved ones forwarded to them free of expense. A military guard will surround the train in Jersey City.

ONE MORE NEW HOTEL.

A TWELVE-STORY FIREPROOF STRUCTURE PLANNED FOR MADISON-AVE. AND FIFTY-SIXTH-ST.

Another fireproof hotel is to be added to the list of those recently built. Plans were filed with the Building Department yesterday by Caldwell & Morgan, architects, acting for the owner, Francis Kinney. The new structure is to go up at the northwest corner of Fifty-sixth and Madison-ave. It will be twelve stories high, and is to be built of limestone and brick. The skeleton will be of steel.

The new hotel will cost $250,000. The style of the architecture is to be Renaissance, and there will be entrances on Madison-ave. and on Fifty-sixth-st. It is the intention of the owner to have workmen begin on the new hotel as soon as the plans have passed the Building Department.

RUNAWAYS CRIPPLED BY A LOCOMOTIVE.

A team of horses owned by Terrence Murphy, which ran away yesterday in Seventy-ninth-st., in the direction of the North River, were run into by a locomotive of the New-York Central and Hudson River Railroad and so badly hurt that they had to be shot afterward by an officer of the Bergen society. The horses were attached to a brick cart. Murphy fed the horses, ran and left them standing in Seventy-ninth-st., unattached, while he went for a dinner. The horses became frightened at something and ran toward the river. A freight train was coming along at the time. The horses made a dash for the embankment and were struck by it. Both had their legs broken.

A CHARITY FOR CRIPPLED CHILDREN.

The Daisy Fields Home for Cripples, at Englewood, N. J., is expecting new children to take the places of several just returned to their homes after their long period of convalescence. The institution is entirely supported by voluntary contributions and invites subscribers and friends to visit it, as well as assist in the work it is doing. Contributions, which are greatly needed at present, may be sent to the treasurer, Mrs. Joseph R. Thibierge, No. 25 West. One hundred-and-thirty-ninth-st., New-York.

A HUNDRED REASONS

Can be given why Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets are the best and most effectual cure for every form of indigestion.

They are in the tablet form which retains their good qualities indefinitely, while liquid preparations become stale and useless with age.

They are convenient, can be carried in the pocket, and taken when needed. They are pleasant to take.

After each meal dissolve one or two of them in the mouth, and, mingling with the food, they constitute a perfect digestive, absolutely safe for the most sensitive stomach.

Their digest food before it has time to ferment, thus preventing the formation of gas and keeping the blood pure and free from the poisonous products of fermented, half-digested food.

Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets is the only remedy designed especially for the cure of stomach troubles and nothing else.

One disease, one remedy; the successful physician of to-day is the specialist, the successful medicine is the medicine prepared especially for one disease.

Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets make the complexion clear by keeping the blood pure.

They increase flesh by digesting flesh-forming food.

A whole package taken at one time is a waste of good material.

Over six thousand men and women in the State of Michigan alone, have been cured of indigestion and dyspepsia by the use of Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets.

Sold by all druggists at 50 cents per package.

THE COMING PEACE CONFERENCE.

RABBI MENDES PROPOSES AN INTERNATIONAL COURT OF HEBREW JURISTS, PROVIDED THAT PALESTINE IS RESTORED TO THE RACE.

The Year of Russia's peace convention was the subject of the sermon preached yesterday morning by Rabbi F. de Sola Mendes in the synagogue at No. 96 Central Park West. Mr. Mendes has made a special study of plans for worldwide peace, and a letter of his urging the plan set forth by him yesterday has been published in "The London Saturday Review," and also reprinted in full in a St. Petersburg newspaper. He said in part:

Inasmuch as we Hebrews are the apostles of the abolition of war, it would be nice to be silent when our brethren of other faiths, by proxy or action, are pressing support for the action of the race. Right now, however, we have an international conference in the interests of peace. This conference is to be held in May, and while peace meetings are being held all over the world, the question of the status of our sister congregations, rather than the congregations of our daughter faith, invite us to co-operate.

I do not expect any immediate result from this conference, except a softening of the horrors of war and possibly a diminution of the chances of war. I do not expect the abolition of war for the world is not the object of arbitration, but until we Hebrews are constituted as a nation, the further results of the conference will undoubtedly be a quickening of the spirit of peace among us.

The method of arbitration proposed by the conference is a trial by jury of the members of the community, and the only logical solution of the problem is to call an international court of arbitration.

The international court of jurists would be a step forward, but it is open to objection that the members of the court are not the members of the community.

The objection is that the members

being out of patriarchal spirits, are apt to be biased in favor of their own fathers.

Since the great powers have clashing interests through colonies, disputed boundaries, etc., the claims, and since therefore the day will be decided by the majority of the court, the members of the community will be a step backward.

The members of the community will be a step forward.

The objection is that the members

being out of patriarchal spirits, are apt to be biased in favor of their own fathers.

Since the great powers have clashing interests through colonies, disputed boundaries, etc., the claims, and since therefore the day will be decided by the majority of the court, the members of the community will be a step backward.

The objection is that the members

being out of patriarchal spirits, are apt to be biased in favor of their own fathers.

Since the great powers have clashing interests through colonies, disputed boundaries, etc., the claims, and since therefore the day will be decided by the majority of the court, the members of the community will be a step backward.

The objection is that the members

being out of patriarchal spirits, are apt to be biased in favor of their own fathers.

Since the great powers have clashing interests through colonies, disputed boundaries, etc., the claims, and since therefore the day will be decided by the majority of the court, the members of the community will be a step backward.

The objection is that the members

being out of patriarchal spirits, are apt to be biased in favor of their own fathers.

Since the great powers have clashing interests through colonies, disputed boundaries, etc., the claims, and since therefore the day will be decided by the majority of the court, the members of the community will be a step backward.

The objection is that the members

being out of patriarchal spirits, are apt to be biased in favor of their own fathers.

Since the great powers have clashing interests through colonies, disputed boundaries, etc., the claims, and since therefore the day will be decided by the majority of the court, the members of the community will be a step backward.

The objection is that the members

being out of patriarchal spirits, are apt to be biased in favor of their own fathers.

Since the great powers have clashing interests through colonies, disputed boundaries, etc., the claims, and since therefore the day will be decided by the majority of the court, the members of the community will be a step backward.

The objection is that the members

being out of patriarchal spirits, are apt to be biased in favor of their own fathers.

Since the great powers have clashing interests through colonies, disputed boundaries, etc., the claims, and since therefore the day will be decided by the majority of the court, the members of the community will be a step backward.

The objection is that the members

being out of patriarchal spirits, are apt to be biased in favor of their own fathers.

Since the great powers have clashing interests through colonies, disputed boundaries, etc., the claims, and since therefore the day will be decided by the majority of the court, the members of the community will be a step backward.

The objection is that the members

being out of patriarchal spirits, are apt to be biased in favor of their own fathers.

Since the great powers have clashing interests through colonies, disputed boundaries, etc., the claims, and since therefore the day will be decided by the majority of the court, the members of the community will be a step backward.

The objection is that the members

being out of patriarchal spirits, are apt to be biased in favor of their own fathers.

Since the great powers have clashing interests through colonies, disputed boundaries, etc., the claims, and since therefore the day will be decided by the majority of the court, the members of the community will be a step backward.

The objection is that the members

being out of patriarchal spirits, are apt to be biased in favor of their own fathers.

Since the great powers have clashing interests through colonies, disputed boundaries, etc., the claims, and since therefore the day will be decided by the majority of the court, the members of the community will be a step backward.

The objection is that the members

being out of patriarchal spirits, are apt to be biased in favor of their own fathers.

Since the great powers have clashing interests through colonies, disputed boundaries, etc., the claims, and since therefore the day will be decided by the majority of the court, the members of the community will be a step backward.

The objection is that the members

being out of patriarchal spirits, are apt to be biased in favor of their own fathers.

Since the great powers have clashing interests through colonies, disputed boundaries, etc., the claims, and since therefore the day will be decided by the majority of the court, the members of the community will be a step backward.

The objection is that the members

being out of patriarchal spirits, are apt to be biased in favor of their own fathers.

Since the great powers have clashing interests through colonies, disputed boundaries, etc., the claims, and since therefore the day will be decided by the majority of the court, the members of the community will be a step backward.

The objection is that the members

being out of patriarchal spirits, are apt to be biased in favor of their own fathers.

Since the great powers have clashing interests through colonies, disputed boundaries, etc., the claims, and since therefore the day will be decided by the majority of the court, the members of the community will be a step backward.

The objection is that the members

being out of patriarchal spirits, are apt to be biased in favor of their own fathers.

Since the great powers have clashing interests through colonies, disputed boundaries, etc., the claims, and since therefore the day will be decided by the majority of the court, the members of the community will be a step backward.

The objection is that the members

being out of patriarchal spirits, are apt to be biased in favor of their own fathers.

Since the great powers have clashing interests through colonies, disputed boundaries, etc., the claims, and since therefore the day will be decided by the majority of the court, the members of the community will be a step backward.

The objection is that the members

being out of patriarchal spirits, are apt to be biased in favor of their own fathers.

Since the great powers have clashing interests through colonies, disputed boundaries, etc., the claims, and since therefore the day will be decided by the majority of the court, the members of the community will be a step backward.

The objection is that the members

being out of patriarchal spirits, are apt to be biased in favor of their own fathers.

Since the great powers have clashing interests through colonies, disputed boundaries, etc., the claims, and since therefore the day will be decided by the majority of the court, the members of the community will be a step backward.

The objection is that the members

being out of patriarchal spirits, are apt to be biased in favor of their own fathers.

Since the great powers have clashing interests through colonies, disputed boundaries, etc., the claims, and since therefore the day will be decided by the majority of the court, the members of the community will be a step backward.

The objection is that the members

being out of patriarchal spirits, are apt to be biased in favor of their own fathers.

Since the great powers have clashing interests through colonies, disputed boundaries, etc., the claims, and since therefore the day will be decided by the majority of the court, the members of the community will be a step backward.

The objection is that the members

being out of patriarchal spirits, are apt to be biased in favor of their own fathers.

Since the great powers have clashing interests through colonies, disputed boundaries, etc., the claims, and since therefore the day will be decided by the majority of the court, the members of the community will be a step backward.

The objection is that the members

being out of patriarchal spirits, are apt to be biased in favor of their own fathers.

Since the great powers have clashing interests through colonies, disputed boundaries, etc., the claims, and since therefore the day will be decided by the majority of the court, the members of the community will be a step backward.

The objection is that the members